Mr. Riordan explained that the school district is asking for approval of a $45,000,000.00 bond issue for the renovation of portions of Reavis High School and the building of a new field house which would be located on the property now housing A.E.R.O. Special Education School. This referendum will be on the March 17, 2020 ballot. The fields of interest for the improvements at Reavis H.S. would be in life safety, the technical wing and pool and the field house project. Dr. James Gunnell of A.E.R.O. informed the Council that the 11 districts involved with the Special Education Phase of this project purchased the Queen of Peace High School property for $3.25 million dollars and that the total cost of the new building on that property would be approx. $50,000,000.00. Supt. Riordan stated that Reavis, with approval of the referendum, would either pay its share, which would be included in the referendum, in one lump sum or payments over 20 years. He also supplied informational packets to the Council which showed average property costs of homes in Burbank and a table to calculate the increase in property taxes. For example, the average cost of a home in Burbank was calculated at $174,200.00 which would be an increase in taxes of approx. $134.00 yearly according to Supt. Riordan.
